FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bohemia, NY — May 10, 2010

Project Green AV Announces Earth Day Challenge 2010 Winner

Project Green AV salutes the entrants of this year's Earth Day Challenge, all of whom represent great Green ideas in action in the audio visual industry. With greater participation in the second year of the contest Project Green AV reports an increase in initiatives at all levels of business. Track progress in Green AV through news links and discussion at Project Green AV online.

AVI-SPL is the winner of the Project Green AV Earth Day Challenge 2010 for its Environmental Sustainability Programs launched to honor the 40th Anniversary of Earth Day on April 22, 2010.

AVI-SPL's new environmentally-focused programs include videoconferencing solutions, internal sustainability and employee training programs and more. One of the leading AV integrators, AVI-SPL offers training programs in and support for US Green Building Council LEED-certification.

Visit the Press Desk at Project Green AV for news from more contestants and Green AV leaders including AV Spin, Projector Lamp Services, Graybow Communications and APC Schneider Electric.

As winner of the Project Green AV Earth Day Challenge 2010, AVI-SPL will be featured in the Project Green AV Newsletter, release date May 25, 2010. To subscribe to the Newsletter, go online to Project Green AV or contact Elizabeth Eames.

Project Green AV is the comprehensive industry resource for Green information & ideas for the Audio Visual industry. Project Green AV is committed to bringing together AV industry colleagues and consumers to learn about, discuss and teach environmentally responsible and cost-effective solutions for AV purchases, installation, new technology and projects.
